Richard,

Costing is the same at Henderson and North Las Vegas. North Las Vegas KVGTT knows the MU2 well as I am in and out of there multiple times per month. Distance to the strip is the same and Downtown is best from KVGTT. Good folks.

No good reason to go to McCarran except for delays and high priced fuel!

I've got a very rare trip coming up early next month into Las Vegas for a five day convention. It has been a really long time since I flew in there. Considering, parking, fuel pricing, and ease of getting to the strip, which of the three airports would you frequent fliers to the area recommend? Thanks in advance!
