Im with Don on this one, khnd is a great place, easy in and out and as close a drive the strip as kvgt is. Its a much nicer facility and cleaner side of town altogether. Pricing about the same either way. On Mar 14, 2014 1:00 PM, "Donald Taylor" <djt13@comcast.net (djt13@comcast.net)> wrote:Quote: Henderson is the easiest to get into and back out. Just South of International. Good FBO, usually good fuel prices (at least during last NBAA) and about a $50.00 cab ride to the strip.

Considering, parking, fuel pricing, and ease of getting to the strip, which of the three airports would you frequent fliers to the area recommend? Thanks in advance!
