Dave and fellow MU2 operators: If Jet Air (KGRB) can help any operators out during the upcoming EAA, please feel free to give a call. Our new ramp will be open prior to the convention, approx. 70,000 additional sq. feet. I'll do my best to assist any operators with transportation and lodging and including fuel prices. Green Bay is about 1 hr. north of Oshkosh. Fly safe. Joe Megna Sr.

Subject: [MU-2 list] Airventure 2014

Who's planning on attending Airventure this year? I'm planning on bringing the kids again (last year was their first visit) and (assuming the ground isn't too soft), camping out in the North 40 under the shady wings of an MU-2. Arriving Friday 8/1, departing Sunday 8/3...

Last year there was another Mits on the south side of runway 27, but I wasn't able to link up with the occupants... Hoping to meet some more members of the MU-2 community this year.
