Thanks Brett. I'm leaning that way although Ken Sutton's plane is up in GRB and he's offered to let me use his hangar at DPA if I want. Issue is we'd then need to rent a car which is a pain given the fact once we get downtown we'll take the L or cab it everywhere.

What school did your daughter go to? My son has been accepted to DePaul (along with some others) but right now it looks like that is his first choice even though he's never visited the school...

Dave: On of my daughters attended a Chicago area college. Tried various options over the years, would recommend GRYV and taking train into town. Brett
